

Jacob Hall

Associate Pastor CANDIDATE

What excites you most about what God is doing at Bethel Baptist Church?

Life Groups and Relationships. We are doing life together, being vulnerable and accountable, while spiritually growing.

Why do you feel like you are the best fit for this position?

I believe God has been preparing me for this calling and position for quite some time. While I do not have formal pastoral experience, I bring 19 years of leadership in the U.S. Air Force. Also, for about two years, I served as an elder, gaining experience in shepherding and spiritual oversight while overseas. I am not coming with all the answers, but I am coming with a teachable spirit and a heart anchored in Christ. My desire is to serve a body of believers with humility, wisdom, and a commitment to spiritual growth. I trust that God will continue to mold me into the leader He has called me to be.

What's one skill or strength you bring to the team? Spiritual Leadership

My Goal in Ministry:

As a servant leader of the church, my purpose is to help the body of Christ know Jesus personally, grow in Him daily, and go with Him faithfully into the world.
